

In honor the Historic City of Jacksonville's sesquicentennial celebration, many of the Wineries of southern Oregon will be coming together on Sept 18th on 3rd St in front of South Stage Cellars. And we are bringing our award winning wines with us!

As the Gateway to the Applegate Valley Wine Trial, the City of Jacksonville has a long history associated with agriculture and farming. One of Jacksonville's favorite sons, Mr. Peter Britt, founded the first winery in southern Oregon, if not the first winery in the State of Oregon.

Today there are dozens of wineries in the Applegate and Rogue Valley with more vineyards being planted each year. Agriculture has always been an integral and important part of southern Oregon's economy, and Jacksonville is at the center of today's wine agribusiness!

So in the spirit of honoring of 150 years of history and partnership many well known as well as new wineries will be showcasing their award winning wines all day on Sept 18th.

Come with a thirst to taste these wines! You can even buy these great wines of southern Oregon, while talking with and learning from the men and women who live on their vineyards, harvest and stomp the grapes! Be prepared to be amazed by the skills that our winemakers and our grape growers have developed over years of fine-tuning their craft to create local, sustainable, renewable, and rewarding products that add so much value and commerce to our City and the region.

The celebrations will continue all day, so take the time to really get to know the local wineries and vineyard owners who will be on hand. It's not too often that so many of the owners come together with their wines for everyone to enjoy!

So come out to Jacksonville – for the whole week of celebrations at the one and only Jacksonville 150th (1860-2010) Jubilee Week party! And be sure to spend a good part of your day with us on Sept 18th, on south 3rd St where you can see, swirl, sniff, sip, and swallow some amazing wines grown right in our own back yards!

Wines can be purchased by the glass, bottle or case. Come happy, leave happier, with a bottle or two for your own celebrations!
